

MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1894.

Section 128. (1) The master shall give to a seaman discharged from his ship, either on his discharge or on payment of his wages, a certificate of his discharge in a form approved by the Board of Trade, specifying the period of his service, name, position and place of his discharge, and if the master fails so to do he shall be liable for each offence he commits to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(2) The master shall also, upon the discharge of every seaman, deliver to the officer whose certificate of competency has been delivered to and returned by him, when the certificate is the officer's, and if without reasonable cause he fails so to do he shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Section 129. (1) Where a seaman is discharged before a superintendent, the master shall make and sign, in a form approved by the Board of Trade, a report of the conduct, character and qualifications of the seaman discharged, or may state in the said form that he declines to give any opinion upon such particulars, or upon any of them, and the superintendent before whom the discharge is made shall, if the seaman declines, give to him or endorse on his certificate of discharge a copy of the report in this Act referred to as the report of a superintendent.

(2) The superintendent shall forward the reports to the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, or to such other person as the Board of Trade may direct to be so forwarded.

130. Offences.

(a) makes a false report or statement under this Act, knowing it to be false; or

(b) forges or falsifies, or uses any certificate of discharge or report of conduct or report of character; or shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(c) assists in procuring, or procures to be committed, any such offence as aforesaid; or

(d) fraudulently uses any certificate of discharge or report of character or copy of a report of character which is forged or altered or does not belong to him, he shall in respect of each offence be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NOTICE TO SEAMEN.

(1) Seamen are informed that this continuous certificate should be produced and handed to the Superintendent or Consul when signing Articles of Agreement, so that the engagement column may be filled in and the certificate given into the safe keeping of the Master.

(2.) Should the seaman desert or fail to join, his book will be deposited with the Superintendent or Consul at the port where he left the ship, who will retain it for a fortnight from the date of the vessel leaving, at the end of which time it will be forwarded to the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, London. Upon the seaman his book it turned to ing an entry charge and column that the voyage was not completed; but if the seaman has wilfully, or through misconduct, failed to join his ship, the Board of Trade may, 65 (2) of the Shipping withheld the such period applying for may be re him, contain in the discharge character the Board of under Sec. Merchant Act, 1906, book for as they think fit, and may refuse to furnish copies of his certificates of discharge or certified extracts of any particulars of service and character.

(3.) A seaman losing his book otherwise than by wreck will not obtain a new one until his next discharge, and a fee will be chargeable; but he can obtain it at once, by applying on Form Dis. O3 to the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, and forwarding the fee, an extract from the Agreements and Official Log Books of the vessels on which he served, showing service and character.

(4.) For instructions as to National Health Insurance, see page 25. NOTE. Should this Certificate come into the possession of any person to whom it does not belong, it should be handed to the Superintendent of the nearest Mercantile Marine Office, or be transmitted to the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, Tower Hill, London, E., postage prepaid.
